Three Rivers Music Society	Chair of the Board of Trustees	Rickmansworth, Herts., UK	01 Jun 16

I work voluntarily as a chair of the Board of Trustees at the Three Rivers Music Society.

The Three Rivers Music Society (TRMS), is a registered charity and established in 1975. Its aim is to promote music in all its aspects by organising concerts and recitals not only by established, talented performers but also aspiring youngsters who wish to pursue music as a career or as an amateur.

I took on this responsibility in June 2016 when the music society was on the brink of closure after being 40+ years of existence due to there being not enough trustees volunteering to take it forward. With the help of 6 of my local friends and their efforts and commitment, the society has successfully survived for over two years with 10+ concerts each year by internationally renowned musicians so far. Moreover, the society is financially secure with a full programme of concerts planned for this year 2020 and the coming year 2021. (However, due to the current Covid-19 lockdown situation, the concerts are cancelled until end July 2020).

TRMS has now made an alliance with the internationally famous Purcell School of Music in Bushey so that their aspiring young music students perform at TRMS's lunchtime concerts where we also invite (for free) the year 6 pupils from local primary schools.
