

QUEENS' SCHOOL

Dare to be Great

Teacher of English

MPS/UPS + London Fringe

Contract Term: Permanent

Closing date: Tuesday 16th April, midday.

We are looking to recruit a creative, enthusiastic and knowledgeable English teacher to join our Queens' School community from September 2024.

Our English faculty has a track record of excellent teaching and student progress, is forward-thinking and committed to high standards in student achievement at all levels. We are extremely proud of the imaginative, varied and innovative curriculum and co-curricular opportunities we provide for our students in their English learning.

This position offers an exciting opportunity for either a recently qualified teacher or for someone looking to broaden their teaching experience in a school and faculty in which scholarship- inspiring a love of learning and pursuing and celebrating aspiration- is a core value.

The successful candidate will be a highly motivated individual who is keen not only to contribute to developing and collaborating on resourcing and best practice pedagogy, but also to take a lead in their own personal development, keeping abreast of change and sharing experience, knowledge and ideas with the English team. Their allocated teaching will ideally range across all ages, up to and including A-level.

Candidates should have a teaching degree, QTS, PGCE/PGDE or equivalent, recognised for the purposes of teaching in the UK.

Our ideal candidate will:

- be highly academically qualified within English or a related subject area;
- have a genuine passion for English language and literature and the ability to share this with our students and inspire a lifelong love of the subject;
- have the resolve to make a real difference with students of all abilities and backgrounds;
- have the ability to guide students to outstanding outcomes;
- have the capacity to work collaboratively as part of a team.

We can offer:

- happy and enthusiastic students who want to learn;
- supportive parents and carers who value education and school community;

- a professionally stimulating and supportive working environment;
- a strong commitment to personalised professional development and progression, including access to National Professional Qualifications, peer-to-peer learning, and opportunities for internal promotion;
- a commitment to encouraging and supporting staff wellbeing.

Queens' is a large, co-educational, multicultural, thriving, and oversubscribed school. We have a well-established reputation for academic achievement for all students, with excellent attainment and progress outcomes. We provide a safe, caring and challenging environment for learning, and are committed to the development of every student as an individual. We understand that while students have different gifts and talents we have a strong belief that everyone can be Great.

At GCSE, it is usual for well over 80% of our students to attain 5 Standards Passes including English and Maths, with over 30% of results at Grades 7, 8 or 9. At Sixth Form, it is usual for well over 50% of grades to be A*- B. In our last Ofsted Inspection, it was noted that Queens' has a 'highly regarded senior leadership team'; 'pupils are clearly proud of their school and enjoy learning' and 'teaching and learning is at the top of the agenda.' We seek the best opportunities and outcomes for all students and are rightly proud of our commitment to inclusivity and equalities. In 2023, we were awarded the Gold Award in Equalities from Equaliteach.

All staff benefit from high quality continuing professional development opportunities and there is a comprehensive induction, support and training programme for ECTs.
